Volunteers to bring treats

December - Christmas Party

Ornament Exchange

Bring a carved Christmas ornament, wrapped, if you want to take home an ornament carved by another member.

Annual Dues

Your dues are now due again. Dues are just $15 per household. You can pay them at the monthly meeting or at the Wednesday night carving sessions. You can also mail them to Julie Cole, 7206 Walker ave., Lincoln, NE 68507

Minutes from the November meeting

On November 7, 2017, 26 members and guests of the Capital City Carvers met at the Mickle Middle School.

The meeting was called to order by president Barry Daffer. He asked for a treasurers report from Julie Cole. She had one expense for the newsletter and deposited membership dues.

Barry thanked the Adams and the Peters for the delicious treats. And Gerald and his helper Joe for the coffee and the set up.

The Facebook page is up. Visit it by going to Lincoln NE Woodcarvers. Thanks to Rae for doing this. Visit it, like it, and share it.

A big thank you to Bruce Kennedy for teaching the class on the Viking. Thank you to Ken Adams for working with a couple of beginners.

The wood turners show will be at the Innovation Campus on Dec. 1 (4 to 9 pm) and Dec 2 (9 am to 4 pm). The wood carvers are invited to show with them. The club will have a table for members that only have a couple of items. If you have more you can get a table or share one with someone. This could be the future of a Lincoln show.

Bruce Lynn reported on the showing at the Aging Partners again this year. Set up will be on Dec. 3 thru Jan. 21. Setup at 1 pm on the 3rd and takedown at 1 pm on Jan. 21st.

The Gretna Workshop will be on Feb 8 thru the 12th. Contact Mary Jo for more info.or go to their website.

Next month we will have elections and the Doane scholarship drawing. We will also have an ornament exchange. Remember if you bring one you get one. It is a fun activity. Please participate.

The show and tell winner was Chuck Bowlby. Keep bringing and sharing your talents.

Respectfully,

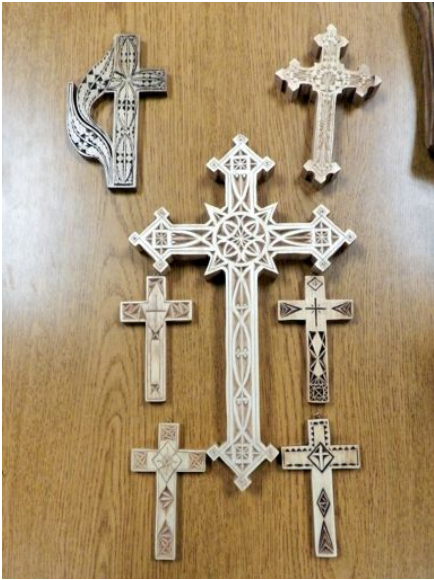

Mary Jo Wolf, secretary
