Minutes from the December meeting

The Capitol City Carvers had their Christmas meeting on December 5th, 2017. We had 29 members and guests present.

President Barry called the meeting to order by thanking everyone for bringing the Christmas treats. He reminded everyone to sign up for treats in 2018.

Julie gave a treasurers report. She deposited $377.00 from the Legacy shows and no expenses.

Remember, Roger Nadrchal's lion bust class in January at the Legacy Terrace at 5700 Fremont St.

The Gretna woodcarving classes will be in February . Website www.gretnawoodcarvingretreat.com.

A report was given on the wood turner/woodcarvers show.

Chuck Adams had a card signed for Larry and Carole Yudis for good health.

Rae Corder was nominated for the vacant board member place. Julie said if anyone wanted to be treasurer she would be willing to give it up. Everyone else is willing to keep their positions.

Chuck Bills won the gift certificate for the show and tell. Congratulations.

We drew for the Doane scholarships. Teaching scholarship ($250) is Bruce Lind, alternate is Bill Thomas.

Regular scholarship ($200) is Richard Duba, alternate is Joel Sunderman.
