Minutes from the January meeting

On January 9, 2019 new president Rae Corder called the meeting to order by welcoming 30 members and guests.

This was our annual soup supper meeting, held at the Mickle Middle School cafeteria. We had a fantastic array of soups, salads, and desserts. Thanks to all for the great food.

Bruce Lynn's carving class has begun. He has twelve students. It will continue until the green men are done. Have fun carving.

Remember Gretna Woodcarving retreat starts February 7, 8, 9, 10th. There is a tool vendor there and a wood dealer will be there on Saturday.

Julie gave a treasurers report. She deposited $442.00 for memberships, and paid bills for the Christmas music concert and the newsletter.

There was a discussion on what and how to donate to the shop class. It was decided to donate $299.00 towards buying wood. It was motioned and seconded. All were in favor.

Show and tell was held. Bruce Kennedy was the winner of the gift certificate.

Meeting Adjourned.

Respectfully,
Mary Jo Wolf, secretary
