Minutes from the September Meeting

On September 3rd, 25 members and guests attended our first meeting of the year. We had a potluck dinner. Great food. Thank you everyone.

President Rae brought the meeting to order, by saying it was a great summer.

New items:

We were asked by the Arbor Day Foundation to participate in the Living History Celebration by having a table and demonstrating. It will be at Arbor Lodge in Nebraska City for five weekends starting the last weekend in Sept. You can pick and choose a time that suits you.

The Knolls Senior Center has asked our club to give a presentation on carving.

The Quilt Museum has asked us to participate again in their Art market like we did last year.

Rich Duba has two workshops coming up. The first is Rich Weatherbee in Oct 11 & 12.

The second is Roger Nadrchal in Oct. Contact Rich to sign up.

The Omaha club has asked us if we want to have a club table at their show in Oct. at no charge.

The Gretna Retreat is coming up. For more info go to the website www.gretnawoodcarversretreat.com.

The board has changed insurance companies. Our previous premium was $500.00 and the new premium will be $265.00. Julie found this new company, McCashland Kirby Ins. Thanks Julie.

Rae brought to a vote to raise the dues to $20.00 a year starting next year. All were in favor.

The scholarships were brought up again. Not sure what was decided.

It was discussed moving the June picnic to a new place to save money.

The advertising in the 55 Plus paper was discussed. They have raised the price. It was decided for the number of members we get from the ad, it was too expensive. Rae has offered to make posters about our club and put them up in different places.

Julie gave a treasurers report. Her expenses were for new checks, Doane scholarship, paid the new insurance for a total of $495.00. She deposited $250.00 from two shows.

We will have entertainment at the October meeting. Joel Sunderman will be entertaining us with his dulcimer. It will be very good.

Gerald Koch won the show and tell. Good job Gerald.

Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully,
Mary Jo Wolf, secretary
